

It is sad to say but there have been some thefts in the park. Members have reported to the office that their personal property has been taken from their lots. Protect your possessions. Limit temptations. Put things away and lock the shed. Clear the decks. Nothing but yard furniture should be visible.

Consider using some battery powered motion detector lights. And keep an eye out for any suspicious activity.

The End of Timbervalley Messages by Daphne Garret

"When the park's information channel on Charter TV was no longer available, the web site was the place to go for information. Then when we began experiencing problems with the web site, the Communication Committee began searching for ways to communicate with members. This is when timbervalleymessages@gmail.com was created as a way to communicate with members until a new web site could be created. Our new web site is up and running very smoothly now. Recently we have begun experiencing problems with gmail blocking the emails being sent from timbervalleymessages@gmail.com as spam. This has been a very frustrating problem that seems to have no solution. Since the weekly Timber Valley Log, monthly calendar and board meeting minutes are available on the web site, the Communication Committee feels that emailing these are no longer necessary. Also, emergency communications to members can be facilitated by text message via Rained-Out. On the web site home page there is a blue Rained-Out link where you can sign up to receive these text messages. The Log and Board minutes are posted in the park and are available on the Members Only Page of the web site. You can get the new password for the members page by calling the office or emailing the log.

The Mens Benevolent Society,

The Mens Benevolent Society Founder, Tom Binninger, has called for a meeting on February, 21 at 1 pm in the card room. This is a men only event and all men are invited. Plans for the future will be discussed

Windows group has been suspended for now. If you would like to teach Window Basics let Jacks & Jills Veep, Mike Hilty, know so a time and place can be decided

Feb 9 at 3pm: A Sr. resource person and a few members of T.V. will discuss what it means to be a caregiver for someone else. It is not for the weaklings.

WHAT IS RAINEDOUT

A Baseball game can be rained out. And that is what started the service known as RainedOut. It was first started by fathers coaching their children's games and needing a quick way to inform parents and players of cancelled or Rained Out Games. Thom Hoch saw how adaptable the program was and started us on it. At this time there is no charge.

It is a simple sign-up procedure. Start on the homepage of the Timber Valley web sight. On the right hand side there is a blue box. Start there and follow the prompts. You can sign up twice if you want to receive the messages by both email and phone text. You can expect to receive a test message the first of each month. Other than that, only messages of timely importance will be sent. It's first official use came just last week. Timber Valley had a evening power outage. A text message went out to all members currently signed up. Most of them are still in the park but those down south like to know what is going on. They all received a second message when power was restored. So they knew that there was no need to worry about food left in freezers. .

Dogs must be on leash when off owners lot. Pets waste must be picked up. Under no circumstance should a pet be allowed to take care of it's business on someone else's lot. Only the greenbelts or the roads are the proper places for Duty Dumps.
