Writing for Fun, Anyone?

Looking for something new and fun this coming year? Read on....

"The laughter emanating from the Card Room says it all: the Writers' Group is for fun. No criticism, no negativity. We write and share and as a result we will painlessly grow as writers. Join us after Coffee and Donuts, Saturdays at 9:30 am." – Jackie Deal, 503-507-3600

December 24 Murder Mystery Dinner a Huge Success

Thanks to all who joined and participated in making the murder mystery dinner a huge success!

Over 60 attendees enjoyed a three-act-murder mystery while enjoying a delicious meal prepared by Chef Denis. The seven suspects were all convincing. The audience voted on the most likely murderer, and it turned out to be none other than the vicar!

A Unique Social Hour with Food Pantry Director

An interesting conundrum occurred on Friday afternoon. The Social Hour speaker, Food Pantry Director Wendy Wilson was ready, but her car was not. It had a flat tire, and she could not drive to Timber Valley where her audience was waiting. Solution? She spoke to the group gathered in the Clubhouse on the phone, with a microphone to amplify her voice. Kudos to ingenuity and technology! And Sharon Elliott who coordinated the event!

A friendly reminder as we start a new year, from your Timber Valley Log Team....
