MEET HENRIETTA HEDGEHOG

This charming little creature was recently introduced to Park members by Kim and Kristi, our creative office crew. Henrietta has been a quiet denizen of the office for the past few years, and last month she took front and center in decorating the office for Spring. Now, she's residing on the sill of the lighted window box, jauntily attired in a large shamrock. Created with pinecones, she seems pleased with her seasonal wardrobe. Keep watching to track her adventures and her next fashion statement.
