APRIL FOOL'S DAY! Monday April 1 – All day

Several inconclusive theories about the origin of this fun annual “holiday” leave us guessing how it started. Nonetheless, it has been observed for centuries in countries and cultures around the world with harmless practical jokes, tricks and hoaxes aimed at friends and family. So join the mischief-making! Substitute toothpaste for the filling in Oreos, drop some food coloring in the milk, send a friend on a fool’s errand you’ve concocted. And beware of being tricked yourself and hearing “April Fool’s Day!” when you least expect it.
