ANNOUNCEMENTS/UPCOMING EVENTS

Social Hour - Sharon Elliott said there was nothing scheduled for upcoming Fridays and she was stepping back from planning speakers. The Social Hour would continue, but without planned speakers.

Chapter 9 - Denis Perkins - No Report.

Chili Cook-off - Chris Beith suggested that the cook-off be combined with Mother's Day or Father's Day. Motion was made by Chris that the Chili Cook-off be held on the Saturday preceding Father's Day and second was made by Jerry Hardy. Vote was unanimous. Suggested time was 2 p.m.

City-wide Yard Sale - The date for the yard sale is June 14 which conflicts with the Chili Cook-off. Chris will find another date for it. We will have tables in the Clubhouse and Park members can participate on their lots. Dar asked who is the contact with the city and Chris will find out.

Piano Tuning - Dar Hoch moved that we contact the tuner in Eugene and provide funds not to exceed $450. Peggy Russell seconded the motion. Only discussion was that we needed to take care of the piano and motion carried unanimously. Eric Moosman contacted the tuner right then and scheduled an appointment for Friday, May 16 at 11:30.

Kentucky Derby May 3 - Race will be run at 4:05 p.m. but fun will start at 1:00 p.m. Bring food and snacks to share, Mint Juleps will be available, and betting window will be open.

Memorial Day No host BBQ - Snoopy's Meadow on Monday, May 26. Bring meat for grill and sides to share. Eric Moosman offered to make flyers and will email them to Chris to print.

NEW BUSINESS

Respectfully Submitted,

Valerie Knowles, Secretary
