Old Business/ Reports

Social Hour- Sharon Elliot reports 1 speaker in the past month, Brad Boisen. It was very interesting and he says our dam is good.

Chapter 9: Denis Perkins has stepped down. There will be an organizational meeting on Sept 9 at noon at the Sizzler in Roseburg. They need all officers as well as a wagon master.

Turkey Hunt: No Report

T.V. Park Birthday: Mary Regan reports at least 58 were in attendance and they had to add a table to accommodate everyone. The cake was excellent. Mary thanked Ann David, Rashanna and Daphne for all their help.

Announcements/Upcoming

Social Hour: Sharon Elliott says she has 2 speakers scheduled. The first is Allan Deyo, a geologist and college professor to discuss the land around park on August 29th and then SMART reading on September 5th.

Chapter 9: Anita Covington says come to the luncheon at Sizzler on Sept 5 at noon. Lunch will be paid for by Chapter 9. They need all officers plus a wagon master and ideas to spark more interest in the club.

Labor Day Festivities: Karen Hofferrber reports it's only 2 weeks away. There will be World Series of Bean Bag Baseball at 1 on Smoked/Baked potato Dinner at 5. Ray and Janice Vaughn will be providing the potatoes, $3 each, and everyone is encouraged to bring a topping to share. We will be having a silent auction with proceeds going to CARE. Karen made a motion to buy 2 ½ sheet cakes @ 27.99 each. Joy Stalnaker seconded and the vote passed.

Senior Prom/Skip Day: Chris Beith says this will be on October 4th at 6pm-? She will need help with decorations and ideas for a theme. The members will vote for a prom King and Queen. If you don't want to dance at the prom maybe you can come as a chaperone to make sure one bowl of punch doesn't get spiked. Admission to the prom is $3 per person or snowbird can donate a gift for Toys For Joy or food for the Renew and Replenish.

Chili Cookoff: Chris Beith announced this will be on October 11 at 2 pm so bring your favorite chili recipe or cornbread. Sutherlin Fire Dept will be coming to be our independent judges. You can buy samples of chili 3/$1 or $5 for a bowl.

Promotion Team: Sharon Elliot has a wonderful idea to showcase individual committees each month with pictures of their activities and accommodations.

Other from the Floor: Dar Hoch proposed donating $100 to the Lions Club Flag Program, Joy Stalnaker seconded and the vote passed.

Respectfully submitted
