From Interest to Participation

Submitted by Rachael Smithey

As our committees organize for the 2026-2027 year, signing up is just the beginning!

Signing up shows your interest.

Choosing a task puts that interest into action.

Seeing it through makes a difference.

Committee participation is a great way to try something different, learn new skills, and discover interests you may not have explored before. There are many opportunities to learn, and experienced members can help you get started!

Every contribution matters and helps make Timber Valley a great place to live!
